Australian Men's 30's Camp!

On Sunday 21st, the Touch Football Australia Men's 30's Emus trained hard at CTA as they continue their preparations towards the World Cup this coming July. This amazing group took time out of their schedule and held a clinic for our junior players. Thank you to Head Coach Karley Banks & your team for the time & energy put into the clinic for our Juniors. You guys are fantastic role models for the next generation of players & coaches.

Fundraising!

April saw Caboolture Touch proudly be able to support two of our very own fundraisers to assist attend this year's World Cup in July!

---

Aussie Womens 35's player Rebecca Thomsen was selling raffle tickets for an awesome meat tray. We also had our HP&PP Manager & current Australian Men's 30's Head Coach Karley Banks selling tickets to her money board. Congratulations to the winners!

Metro Cup 2024

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST
OPENED FOR CABOOLTURE
SNAKES METRO CUP PLAYERS, COACHES & MANAGERS.

We are seeking interest from players, coaches & managers who wish to participate for Caboolture at this year's Metro Cup. This event, which is ran at the Whiteshill Touch Football facility, is one of the best in Queensland & is a great player, coach & manager development opportunity for our club.

What is Metro Cup?

The Metro Cup is a competitive premier club competition hosted by BMTA showcasing some the world's best players and referees. The competition is played on a Friday night in the following divisions - Premier, Division 1, Division 2 and Division 3 in Men's and Women's and a Mixed Gender All Abilities competition.
